I’m an EA who finds joy in helping my clients make time for what matters most to them. I’ve supported visionary executives in the fintech, AI, and short-term rental spaces, and I believe great support goes beyond just organization. I want to understand what matters most to the people I work with and bring them a sense of relief by being proactive, caring, and always present. Celebrating my executives’ milestones and supporting them through challenges is at the heart of what I do.

⭐ Task Expertise

I'd be excited to handle a variety of tasks, including, but not limited to:

- 📥 Communications and Inbox Management
- 📅 Calendar Management
- ✈️ Travel Planning
- 👥 CRM Building and Management
- 🤝 Recruiting Support
- 🌸 Graphic Design
- 🧠 AI Tools and Light Workflow Automation
- 📊 Hands-On Support with Ad-Hoc Projects and More...

Executive Assistant

Full-service property management for real estate investors and homeowners

- Supported company growth by building on core processes, automating routine tasks, building scorecards, KPIs, and SOPs, while quickly adapting to new tools like Conduit/StayFi to boost operational efficiency.
- Managed daily cross-functional operations, including assigning turnovers and inspections, routing maintenance requests, and team communications to keep operations running smoothly.
- Supported the rollout of financial and guest protection programs, including insurance and security/damage deposit workflows. Handled invoicing, payments, and occasional procurement.
- Recruited and onboarded new staff, and created engaging video and newsletter content for social media and email marketing campaigns.
- Proactively resolved misrouted owner or client inquiries with utmost satisfaction, reinforcing the company’s reputation for excellence.
- Helped my client stay organized, ensured deliverables were met on time, helped keep the team aligned, and pushed for my client to reach higher goals and supported his ideas for professional growth.

AI2 Incubator

Nov 2024 - April 2025 • 6 months

Founder's Concierge

Helping entrepreneurs create AI-first startups through world-leading A.I. support and funding.

- Led end-to-end investor engagement to maintain strong investor relations and tracked 50+ stakeholders in Attio to ensure non-overlapping communication across three co-founders.
- Coordinated complex travel, including a 7-day, tri-state investor roadshow for founders; proactively secured travel discounts and curated personalized gifts to advance meaningful investor relations.
- Assisted in tracking and reaching out to promising applicants, and onboarding new incubator teams via LinkedIn, Notion, and Slack, ensuring they felt informed and warmly welcomed into the company.
- Simultaneously supported a successful office grand opening by sourcing vendors, coordinating last-minute VIP invites and logistics for fireside chats, and assisting with space planning and furniture procurement.
- Improved client's work-life balance by planning family activities, assisting with personal tasks, and arranging meaningful gifts for special occasions.

A Team Overseas (Agency)

Oct 2023 - Mar 2024 • 6 months

Executive Assistant to the Co-Founders

AI Startup -Streamlining Access to Government Benefits for Better Financial Health

Key Highlights:

- Increased sales engagement by growing call volume from 7 to 40+ engaged companies through personalized outreach and consistent follow-ups, resulting in increased bookings.
- Supporting sales call prep by creating tailored pitch decks, software mock-ups, and researching state-specific government benefits to give clients a competitive edge during calls.
- Supported conference networking by researching 100+ attendee profiles to target high-value contacts and introduced automation to replace manual business card data entry post conference.
- Managed executive communication for co-founders by handling email, planning weekly schedules, and drafting key documents to reduce "thought fatigue" and free up time for strategic work.

Athena EA (Agency)

Jan 2022 - Aug 2023 • 1 year and 7 months

Term 1. Executive Assistant to the CFO and Head of Product

Fintech Startup - Modernizing payments infrastructure for the global fleet transportation industry.

Term 2. Executive Assistant to the CEO

AI Stealth Startup - Leveraging AI to enhance global access to mental healthcare

Besides my Daily Responsibilities, here are a few things I'm proud of:

- Resolved a year-long billing discrepancy by collaborating with the CEO and Employer of Record to reconcile payments, refunds, and outstanding balances, bringing the issue to full resolution.
- Supported global operations and investor relations, including helping set up a UK employee pension plan, curating quarterly investor reports using financial data from Carta, and achieving $800+ in cost savings by securing corporate hotel discounts for a company off-site.
- Partnered with our founding engineer to improve the accuracy of the ML model powering the company's core service, increasing reliability and user trust.
- Managed HR and ad hoc administrative operations, including interviews, onboarding, applicant tracking, swag shipments, banking setup, and bill payments. Supported product initiatives by creating Figma mockups and designing customer sign-up flows to enhance user experience.
- Consistently praised by my client and external contacts for professional and effective email communication.
- Recommended apps and AI alternatives that made meeting summaries and travel planning convenient.
- Encouraged my client (who is camera-shy) to start a podcast, highlighting their fascinating perspectives and knowledge about the AI Industry and ML Models.

❤️‍🔥 Values I Cherish

- Treat people with kindness and respect, because everyone has their own struggles in life, their own story.
- I take pride in my work and always give my full effort. I'm not afraid to go above and beyond, and I value feedback. Knowing where I can improve is equally important to me.
- If there's something I can do to make things easier for you, I'll do it or learn how to do it. I love using AI to simplify tasks, and it makes me very happy when my proactive ideas lead to great results.
- I don't just do the work - I care about people. Your confidentiality, your well-being, your frustrations, and wins. I want you to have time for what brings you joy. I believe that to care is to be human.
